The Chamber Does...

what you want it to do. Each year the programs depend upon the area's needs as determined through membership surveys and board planning sessions. The Program of Action becomes a blueprint for action.

The Chamber Has...

a Board of Directors elected from the membership that provides direction and policy-making. The Chamber has a full-time staff of professionals performing day-to-day operations. These staff members provide coordination, guiding the many volunteer workers of the community toward successful achievements of objectives. The President is a professional who supervises the staff and has ultimate responsibility for the organization's finances and programs.

The Chamber Is Funded...

by voluntary investments from its members, as well as revenue generated by special events and administrative services.. Individuals or firms wishing to play a role in the Fairmont area's growth are eligible for membership. Dues are determined by the Board of Directors. The dues structure is geared to provide our organization with the necessary funds to carry out our goals. Chamber membership is an investment in the present and future of the community's welfare.
