

People in Martin County's Past . . .

and,
how they shaped the
history of our county.

Morgan Martin

- He was from Green Bay, Wisconsin. He was a delegate from Wisconsin Territory who introduced the bill for the organization of the Minnesota Territory in 1846.
- Members of the territorial legislature who passed the act establishing Martin County may have been partly influenced in favor of his name.
- Some think he should be given credit for Martin County's name.

William Budd

- One of original settlers of Fairmont, with E. Banks Hall, in 1856.
- 1st Postmaster
- Clerk of Court
- Prominent in social, civic, and political circles.
- Born in New Jersey in 1829, died in California in 1915.

705 Albion Ave.
Fairmont, MN